

Botanical Name: Asteriscus maritimus

Common Name: Gold Coin asteriscus

Type of Plant: dicot: perennial Family Asteraceae

Habit of Growth:

Overall Shape low, cushion-shaped plant with upright stems and large masses of terminal yellow, daisy-like flowers

Height to 12" Spread to 4 ft. Growth Rate moderate

Environment:

Exposure outdoors full sun

Soil prefers a soil with good drainage

Hardiness some frost: zones 9, 15-24

Morphology:

Leaves oblong to spatulate or oblanceolate, to 2" long; olive green above, silvery beneath

Flowers yellow head flowers to 1-1/2" across throughout the warm season

Fruit achene

Propagation: stem cuttings any time

Usage: low facer or groundcover used for Mediterranean gardens, perennial beds, seaside gardens, drought tolerant gardens

Landscape Care:

Watering very drought tolerant once established

Fertilizing none required

Pruning head back or shear regularly to remove dead flowers

Pests/Diseases none significant

Other

Origin: Spain, Canary Islands